

Cloud Services

Providing faster, flexible data science, analytics and data management services.

Amadeus provides cloud services which scale with your requirement via our technology partners at Amazon and Microsoft.

Results as a Service (RaaS)

We provide you with answers to questions and actionable insight meaning your business does not need software, platforms or analytical skills.

Software as a Service (SaaS)

Our solution allows your analysts and data scientists to be productive, whilst we manage the administration, maintenance and operational responsibilities of your analytics platform.

Platform as a Service (PaaS)

Ideal if you want your licensed software to be available in a ready-made analytical infrastructure. Your analysts and data scientists can be productive within days, whilst Amadeus provides the platform operation.
